TOWN RESIDENTS-Mark Bobholz clarified wording on the town residents' agenda portion.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Update on Shaw Hill Bridge-separate agreement would need to be drafted for maintenance to be done on the bridge, Chairman waiting for next WTA/County meeting to look into future bridge grants
2. Equipment Update-truck has been returned
3. Chapter 10 Code Language Revision-proposal of exempting permit needed for re-roofing
4. McKinley Beach Road-survey is completed, awaiting surveyor to send the completed data
5. Schoenfeld's Woodland Plat-awaiting quote from Kartechner Brothers
6. Farmland Preservation Zoning-tabled until December meeting
7. Yard Waste Dumping Hours-Motion (Raue/L.Kern) to have the yard waste site open on Saturdays from 8-12pm, excluding holiday weekends and dumpster day weekends. Opening April 18, 2026 and closing October 31, 2026. Carried unanimously. Les Oestreich stated the location the town uses for their dump site is filling up and may need to be closed next year. Chairman restated the resolution passed in 2022 that the board reserves to close the site when they see fit.
8. Tax Letter Review-completed by Town Board.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Chicken Ordinance-Currently 10 chickens, no roosters are allowed in a residentially zoned plot. There has been an increase in nuisance calls regarding chickens. Discussion held with town residents in attendance. Possibility of updating ordinance to have a certified survey, not in subdivisions, and/or a permit granting approval.
